Construction was recognized for its work on Howard Hughes Medical Institute's Janelia Farms Research Campus in Ashburn by the Northern Virginia Chapter of The National Association of Industrial and Office Properties.

More than 700 people attended the association's annual award ceremony Nov. 16 at the Ritz Carlton in Tysons Corner.

Turner, a New York firm with Mid-Atlantic headquarters in Arlington, also took the Best Building High Rise category for the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

Tetra Partnerships, the Reston-based developer of several Loudoun properties including University Professional Center in Ashburn, won the Best Building, Mixed-Use Project award for the Herndon Commerce Center, a 3-story, 26,000 square foot office/retail condominium.
